

Old Deuteronomy Just Before Dawn

by Jodi Bosin

orange of needles and cheetos bag at somerset station the weather outside is mean tonight my eyes feel extra deep society is so discouraging in climates like these winter was mild for one minute and then it was unrelenting and it's been a decade since any section 8 housing i passed the theatre where we saw cats it's all boarded up i heard a theory that the movie caused a rip in space/time that made everything fucked people will truly do anything to avoid addressing systemic inequality
